

Struthers Primary looked at 'Conflict and Resolution' during Anti-bullying month of November.

This project focused on developing Health and Wellbeing and was aimed at increasing growth mind-set of resilience and managing behaviour both in and out of school. All classes took part shared their project in our 'Conflict and Resolutions' Assembly on 1st December 2017.

Children feel more confident about dealing with situations at school and in the community and have discovered a greater understanding of the process all staff undertake to minimise and reduce concerns of 'bullying' behaviour.

We have high expectations of behaviour and are trying to develop a more resilient and respectful learning community.

P1 focused on "friendship"

P2 focused on "Being included"
