

RRS Winter Newsletter 2016/17

Our Christmas church collection went to Marie Curie
We raised £132.59.

The RRS committee had a response back from the Home Office regarding our Refugee Campaign. It is a letter with ideas for us to take forward and work on

We are continuing to collect money in our JAM tins for our sponsored children in Diesplot, Africa. We got a lovely letter from them saying how much they appreciate all our support and what a difference we are making to their lives.

Dear pupils & staff at Strathern Primary,
Thank you for the letter and photos you've sent.
Thank you for the support you gave us for the past year. This has made a difference in our health. It makes our life better and we Have a wonderful Year.
We look forward to receiving news from you and we will send you more letters this new Year.
From the children and staff of Thabababiny

Please continue to collect your change in your Jam tins and A great big thank you to all of you who have contributed so far. We are making a difference to lives.
